

October 17th –21st is designated School Violence Awareness Week in the state of New Jersey. Throughout the week, Wanaque Elementary School will be participating in daily activities themed around stopping bullying and being an up-stander. Below is a list of daily activities to show our unity against bullying.

Monday, October 17th—“Wanaque is Classy” Students will dress up against bullying.

Tuesday, October 18th—“Hats Off Against Bullying.” Students will wear hats.

Wednesday, October 19th—“Unity Day - Together against Bullying.” Students will wear orange.

Thursday, October 20th—“Be a H.E.R.O—Help encourage and Respect Others” Students will wear a superhero shirt.

Friday, October 21st—“Black Out Bullying” - Students will wear Black